

2011 CHILDREN'S PEACOCK POSTER COMPETITION

2nd Annual Peacock Contest

Sponsored by Palos Verdes Library and Mary Jo Hazard

Local author Mary Jo Hazard and Palos Verdes Library District Young Readers' Librarian, Laura Henry are sponsoring a peacock poster contest for children beginning March 26th and concluding April 16th. All area elementary school students Kindergarten through 5th grade are invited to participate.

The contest provides the opportunity for students to participate in an educational activity about the surprising peacock habitat and interspecies coexistence here in Palos Verdes.

15 Winners and their parents will be honored at a party at the Malaga Cove Library on April 30th. Prizes include autographed copies of the book The Peacocks of Palos Verdes, peacock flags and wristbands from Friends of the Peacocks, gift certificates from Terranea Resort, Small Wonders, Nantucket Crossing, Pages A Bookstore and birdseed from The Wild Bird Store. The peacock posters will be displayed in the library and participating businesses.

Winners will be invited to ride on a peacock float in the 2011 Rolling Hills Christmas Parade.

Contest rules and entry forms are available at the Palos Verdes Library, www.pvld.org, the Palos Verdes Chamber's website www.palosverdeschamber.com and www.peacocksofpalosverdes.com
